

Parking near the Library

for large meetings – Free and in easy walking distance:

Masonic Lot on the corner of Middle Street and Miller Ave. Drive in from Miller Ave.

Short walk down Richards Ave and turn left to Library

Rockland Street Lot on Rockland Street just across Leary Field from the Library (This small lot is not numbered on the map above. It is on just past Richards Ave and beside the Leary Field bleachers).

Walk past the bleachers on the dirt path; cross Parrott Ave to the Library.

Parrott Ave Lot on the corner of Junkins Ave and Parrott Ave. This large lot fills up quickly in the morning, but is a good parking spot for those who plan to spend some time downtown before or after meeting at the Library.

Walk down Parrott past the Middle School to the Library.

South Mill Pond Lot off Junkins near the playground and tennis courts.

Follow the paved path past the dog park, tennis courts and Little League field to Parrott Ave, the Middle School and the Library.

Note: Richards Ave is currently under construction—Open to walkers but closed to traffic.

Parking is allowed on both sides of Parrott Ave. with no restrictions. Parking restrictions are enforced in the lots in front of and beside the Library itself.
